Fake

Music: Gerwin Ruesink Lyrics: Gerwin Ruesink

I've been reading
The words from your mind
Someone's staying
And who's left behind?
I'm denying the things
That you've said
Still I'm fighting
The voice in my head

I've been trying all along
But I'm dying in this song
'cause you'll leave me here

Can't you pretend that you want me
'Cause I need you here
Why don't you fake
That you need me
Let me breathe your air

Oh now I clear my mind
And open up my heart
I might be just way too blind
For a brandnew start

I've been crying
The tears from my eyes
Still I'm living
The life built with lies
